five Lasallian Values

Respect

How You Treat Yourself and Others

In De La Salle, demonstrating respect involves acting appropriately and positively. It is essential to uphold a positive image of yourself, the school and the broader community.

Compassion

Taking Care of Each Other's Well -Being

Showing appreciation and care towards others involves interacting in a mature and Lasallian way. It includes listening to others, valuing their opinions, and showing compassion irrespective of differences in backgrounds or circumstances.

Challenge

Challenging Ourselves to Grow and Develop

To advance academically, a strong work ethic is crucial. At De La Salle, your hard work and dedication will be recognised and appreciated.

Belong

Demonstrating Pride in Our School and Community

Expressing appreciation involves embracing your connection to the De La Salle community and taking pride in being a Lasallian. By adhering to the proper uniform, bringing required equipment, and representing the school at external events, you exemplify a strong sense of belonging., leading to an improved community.

Faith

Putting Faith into Action

Your ability to demonstrate faith will become evident through your involvement in positive deeds and activities. Whether you are assisting community members, advocating for what is just, or addressing injustices, these actions showcase your belief in yourself and your capabilities.
